To all organizers, sponsors, coordinators and food vendors at special events:

Each special event involving food is unique. Due to the way that rules are written, some events and vendors may be exempt. It is in the best interest of the organizer, sponsor, coordinator, food vendors, and public health that you contact the Health Department, Fire Marshall, etc. Prior to any event involving food to determine what will be required.

Additional information from the Health Department about permitting requirements, information and applications for temporary food establishments will be provided. Even if an event or vendor is exempted from the rules, it would be best for the health and safety of patrons if all these requirements are met.

Read these requirements carefully. Application (for organizers and vendors) must be provided in timely manner. Event Organizers must supply all information to the health department about the event. However, the bulk of the requirements will have to be met by the individual vendor. It is the responsibility of the vendor to meet all these requirements before a permit can be issued. Denial of a permit will result in no sale of food and will mean the loss of revenue and possible loss of food product.

Please be aware of any legal problems that could result from selling food. Selling food without a permit at an event where a permit is required will result in a cease order being issued and possible legal action. Event sponsors, organizers, coordinators and vendors will share responsibility if a food borne illness occurs from food sold at the event.

Exemption: Nonprofit organization, organizations that are exempt from federal income tax or political committees may prepare and sell food one time per month as long as they do not exceed two consecutive days. If you are claiming an exemption as one of these groups, please complete the form titled “Application for Exempt Temporary Events”. Also please provide a copy of the letter of declaration from the North Carolina Department of Revenue of the Internal Revenue Service, or a letter from the candidate or political action committee authorizing you to conduct the event. There is no need to complete the Event Organizer of Food Vendor application unless it is determined that the event does not qualify for the exemption.

You may obtain a copy of the Rules Governing the Sanitation of Restaurants and Other Food handling Establishments at www.deh.enr.state.nc.s/ehs/food/fudlinks.htm

Thank you in advance for your cooperation and good luck with your event!
