Jones Lake State Park in Bladen County was the setting of this year's Area VII Envirothon competition on April 1, 2009.

Twenty-five teams from Bladen, Cumberland, Robeson and Sampson Counties competed for the opportunity to go to the State competition in April.

Resource professionals from NC Forest Service, USDA-NRCS, Jones Lake State Park and local environmental educators served as station presenters for the event.

Volunteers for the event included supervisors and staff of Area VII Districts, USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service, NC Department of Environment and Natural Resources staff, NC Cooperative Extension staff and other agency resource professionals.

State Envirothon

Cumberland Soil and Water Conservation District sponsored one high school team and one middle school team at the 2009 State Envirothon on April 24 and 25 at Cedarock Park in Burlington, NC.

The "Emus", Cumberland's middle school team, won third place and earned highest score medals at the soils and current issues stations.

The "Terra Terrors" placed eighth out of fifty teams in the high school event.
