

THE BYLAWS OF THE CUMBERLAND COUNTY LOCAL EMERGENCY PLANNING COMMITTEE

ARTICLE I

NAME

This organization shall be known as the Cumberland County Local Emergency Planning Committee (CCLEPC).

ARTICLE II

PURPOSES

The duties and activities of the CCLEPC are those set forth by the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners in accordance with, but not limited to, Title III of the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986 (SARA).

The CCLEPC shall:

1. Establish procedures for reviewing and processing requests from the public for information under Section 324 of SARA.
2. Develop a chemical hazard risk analysis.
3. Develop emergency response procedures for off-site emergency response personnel.
4. Identify private sector and public sector resources available to deal with hazardous materials emergencies and assist facilities in meeting reporting requirements.
5. Review emergency plans submitted by the subcommittees and make recommendations on revisions of the plans that may be necessary to ensure coordination of such a plan with emergency response plans of other emergency planning agencies.
6. Periodically review and update Cumberland County's emergency response plans.
7. Periodically hold emergency response exercises.

ARTICLE III

SECTION I. Members. The CCLEPC shall consist of as many members as are deemed necessary by the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners, and the North Carolina Emergency Response Commission, in accordance with Title III of SARA with a minimum of thirteen (13) members.

1. All appointments to the committee shall be made by the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners and approved by the North Carolina Emergency Response Commission.
2. The members of the committee shall have the ability, commitment, authority, and resources to properly function.
3. The committee shall possess or have ready access to a wide range of expertise relating to the community, the industrial facilities and transportation, and the mechanics of emergency response and response planning.

THE BYLAWS OF THE CUMBERLAND COUNTY LOCAL EMERGENCY PLANNING COMMITTEE

4. The committee shall be representative of all elements of the community with a substantial interest in reducing the risks posed by hazardous materials.

SECTION 2. Term of Members. The initial members of the committee, other than ex-officio members and military representatives shall serve terms of three (3) years. Upon the expiration of the term of the initial members, the Board of County Commissioners shall appoint, at its sole discretion, one-third (1/3) of the members, excluding ex-officio members and military representatives, to terms of one (1) year, one-third (1/3) to terms of two (2) years, and one-third (1/3) to terms of three (3) years. Subsequently, all members, excluding ex-officio members and military representatives, shall be appointed for three (3) year terms.

SECTION 3. Ex-Officio Members and Military Representatives

- a. The following membership positions are designated as ex-officio members, with full voting rights: County Commissioner Liaison, County Manager, Fayetteville City Manager, Emergency Services (Management) Director, Cumberland County E.M. Coordinator and Hazardous Materials Response Team Leader. The persons holding such positions shall be appointed as members for so long as they hold their position.
- b. The Senior/Garrison Commander at Fort Bragg will be requested to nominate one committee member for appointment by the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners and approval by the North Carolina Emergency Response Committee for an indefinite term consistent with the needs of the installations with full voting rights.

SECTION 4. Inactive Members. Appointed members shall be considered inactive when they have missed more than two (2) consecutive committee meetings without notification to the committee chairman or staff office of significant reasons why they were unable to attend the meetings.

SECTION 5. Removal of Members. SECTION 2 of ARTICLE III notwithstanding, all inactive members of the CCLEPC shall be subject to removal by the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners.

SECTION 6. Vacancies. Vacancies in memberships of the committee shall be filled by the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners for the remainder of the unexpired term.
