

Cumberland County Citizens' Academy Application

The Cumberland County Citizens' Academy helps citizens gain a better understanding of what county government does and how the various departments play a vital role in the community.

The Fall 2015 Citizens' Academy will run Sept. 15-Oct. 27 for seven consecutive Tuesdays from 6-9 p.m. at various county government locations. Class size is limited, and academy slots are filled on a first-come, first-serve basis. Citizens are encouraged to apply promptly. Participants are asked to commit to attending all six classes.

You must be a Cumberland County resident to apply.

Please complete the application and return to Sally Shutt, Chief Public Information Director, P.O. Box 1829, Fayetteville, NC, 28302-1829 or FAX to (910) 678-7717. For more information, please call (910) 437-1921 or email sshutt@co.cumberland.nc.us.

Please fill out form completely.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Why do you want to attend Citizens' Academy?

Sign: _____ Date: _____