County Citizens' Academy Accepting Applications

FAYETTEVILLE – Cumberland County is accepting applications for its upcoming Citizens' Academy running Sept. 17-Oct. 29. The academy is free and held for seven consecutive Tuesdays from 6-9 p.m. at various county government locations.

The Citizens' Academy helps citizens gain a better understanding of what county government does and how the various departments play a vital role in the community.

You must be a Cumberland County resident to apply. The application is available online at www.co.cumberland.nc.us. For more information, please call 910-437-1921 or email sshutt@co.cumberland.nc.us.
